Fundraising/Volunteer Refund

Families with children playing on a team may choose to fundraise / volunteer for the organization and receive a refund on player registration fees. All hours must be documented. Hours may be submitted at the January board meeting. Refunds will be given after the submitted hours are reviewed and approved. All fees must be paid in full before any refund is given to a family. Refund amounts are listed above for the different types of teams.

Volunteer hour requirements per player per family:

1 st player	15 hours
2 nd player	10 hours
3 rd or more players	5 hours

Example: 4 non-initiation players from one family- 35 volunteer hours to receive refunds.

Please note that all on ice volunteers must attend USA Hockey clinics in order to be on the ice. All head and assistant coaches must submit a current USA Hockey Coaching Card to the State organization for the level appropriate to the team they are coaching. Screenings are mandatory this year all coaches, board members, team V.P.'s and anyone who is involved with players will need to do the screening.

Scholarships: LYHA has limited amount of scholarship aid available. You must apply by submitting a request in writing to the President of LYHA (including how much you feel you will need in aid) and the Executive Board will review and act upon the request.
